

Your latest topic results:

Should voting in the UK be made easier?

Continue the conversation at home...

Is the internet driving us apart?

Can you list similarities between online & real-life relationships?

What news stories, information & skills do you get from time spent online?

What sources would you recommend to help others with online safety?

Need more information?

To access the resources below, click the links or enter the search terms into your browser.

The UK Safer Internet Centre website has lots of information & advice about online safety, plus updates on this year's SID.

Search Term:
UK Safer Internet Centre

Search Term:
Online Safety for Teens NSPCC

The NSPCC has lots of information on their website for young people about navigating the online world.

Health for Teens has compiled a list of "The 5 P's" to remember when it comes to staying safe online.

Search Term:
Health for Teens 5 P's

Search Term:
Thinkuknow Online Safety

Thinkuknow's website is a place where you can report online abuse and seek further advice.

Childnet has help & advice and resources for 11-18 year olds. Their topics include online bullying & misinformation.

Search Term:
Childnet Young People 11-18

Search Term:
Pressure Perfect Internet Matters

Internet Matters has a handy toolkit for managing your wellbeing on Instagram, especially "the pressure to be perfect".

If you are concerned for yourself (or someone you know), please make sure to talk to a trusted adult.