1 INTRODUCTION

Our uniform provider is Pinders Schoolwear. https://pindersschoolwear.com
- Maltby Academy students must be in perfect uniform at all times.
- Whenever students are wearing the Academy uniform, they are representing the Academy.
- If for any reason a student arrives at the Academy in the incorrect uniform, they will be loaned the correct item for the day.
- No student will be allowed to lessons unless they are in full, correct uniform.
- The Associate Principal will make the final decision of whether items of uniform are acceptable.
- If you are unsure whether or not certain items of uniform meet our uniform requirements, please check with the Academy before you purchase them.

2 FOOTWEAR

- Students must wear shoes that are completely black, look professional and not have any logos or branding.
- They must be formal shoes, not black trainers, boots, converse, pumps, sandshoes or sandals.
- Footwear with trainer-like soles, canvas or suede shoes are also not allowed.
- The shoes must be leather or leather look.
- Only one buckle is allowed on any style of shoe. This buckle must be black or silver.
- Recommended shoes are shown below.

3 BLAZER

- Students must wear a blazer at all times when they are inside the Academy building.
- Students may remove their blazers when in a lesson with teacher permission but must be put back on before leaving the classroom.
4 SKIRTS AND TIGHTS

- If your child chooses to wear a skirt, it must be a plain straight line or wide pleated, black skirt, which is of an acceptable length, no more than 10cm above the knee.
- If students wear tights they must not be patterned or have any texture to them. Leggings are not permitted.

5 TROUSERS

- Students must wear black trousers, these must be formal, with no pattern or zips.

The following trousers are not acceptable in any year group:
